SUNDAY SCHOOL LEAGUE. Ninth Regains Second Place by Defeating Bethany by 5 to 1. STANDING OF THE TEAMS.

To-day's game-First vs. R. I. M., at Thirteenth and D streets northeast. Ninth got back at Bethany for dumping them out of second place by turning the tables on the Worley athletes yesterday to the tune of 5 to 1. Gray, for the boys in blue, pitched a masterful game, allowing but two hits and fanning eight. Newgent also twirled well up to the eighth round, when the Ninth sluggers found him for three clean bingles, which netted them as many runs. Le Mat, the former R. I. M. player, was seen in the Bethany line-up. Le Mat had himself transferred, thinking that his
